

DARK MAN

THE DARK GLASS

PETER LANCETT

 SADDLEBACK
EDUCATIONAL PUBLISHING

Chapter One: The Girl

In a dirty room in the bad part of the city,
there is a bed.

The Dark Man sits by the bed.

A girl, covered with a blanket, lies there.

The girl is dying, and not even magic can save her.

“The Dark Glass can help you see the Golden Cup,” she says softly.

“You must take it from them.”

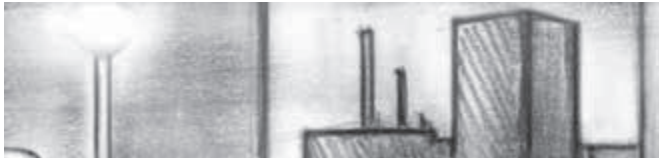

The Dark Man nods as she tells him where to find the Dark Glass.

The girl falls back onto her pillow and sleeps.

Chapter Two: The Busy Streets

In the good part of the city, the sun is shining.

The Dark Man walks the busy streets.

No one seems to see him. He is just one person among many.

