

The tiny goat ran to the river.
The princess chased the goat.
She kicked a rock and she fell.

The king ran to the princess.
He hugged her.
The princess became gold.
Her dress was gold and
her hair was gold, too.

My daughter is gold.
I want my little girl.
No more gold!
No more gold!

The king was very sad and
the tiny goat was sad, too.
The king cried and the tiny goat cried.

Black clouds filled the sky and rain poured down from the clouds.
The rain fell on the princess and
the princess became a little girl.
The rain fell on the flowers and the flowers became real flowers.

The king was glad.
He hugged the goat and
he kissed his little girl.
The princess was happy
and the tiny goat was happy, too.
