

Lesson Plans

Day One

1. Sing “The Matt and Molly Song.” (Tune: “Frère Jacques”)

Have all the students gather on the floor in front of a chalk ledge. Ask, “Who would like to come up and help me lead ‘The Matt and Molly Song’?” Choose one student to help you lead.

SLP and leader	Matt and Molly
Students	Matt and Molly

Students	Here we go.

2. Introduce the story of the week.

Say, “I have a new story to tell you. The title of the story is ‘_____.’ Are you ready to see the first picture? Are you sure? Okay. Here is picture number one.”

3. Describe the picture.

Hold up picture number one. Make sure all the students can see it. Ask, “What’s happening in picture number one?” Encourage the students to tell about the people, things, and places illustrated in the picture.

Introduce new vocabulary concepts as they appear in the story. (Key vocabulary words are in boldface in each story.) After the students describe the picture and you explain any new vocabulary, place the picture on the chalk ledge so all the students can see it.

4. Predict the next event.

Ask, “What do you think will happen next?” Let the students predict what might happen in picture number two. Encourage participation with reinforcement, such as, “What a great idea! I like the way you’re thinking!”

Let several students make predictions. Then ask, “Are you ready to see picture number two?” Hold up picture number two and act surprised about what you see. Then ask the students, “What’s happening in picture number two?”

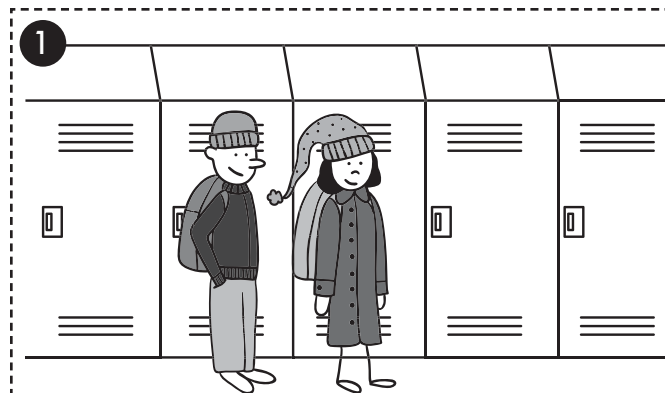

5. Choose the ending to answer the wh- question.

Hold the wh- question strip so it’s facing the student. If you’re working at a table, lay down the strip so it’s facing the student. Point to each word as you read the wh- question. Go back

Homework Sheet

We used the story Matt and Molly Are Arriving at School to practice answering WHEN questions this week. Your child answered the WHEN question in the story by choosing one of the two endings.

Cut out the pictures. Read the text below picture number one, pointing to the words as you read them. Then lay the picture on the table. Do the same for picture number two and picture number three. Next, ask the WHEN question. Show your child picture number 4a and picture number 4b and ask him to choose one. He may tell you his choice, point to it, or touch it with an unsharpened pencil. After your child chooses a picture, say, "Good choice!" Then read the text for that picture and lay the picture on the table. Finally, retell the entire story one more time. For added fun, act out the story with your child!

Matt and Molly are arriving at school. They walk to their lockers to put away their things.

Molly opens her locker and puts her hat, coat, and book bag inside. Whew!

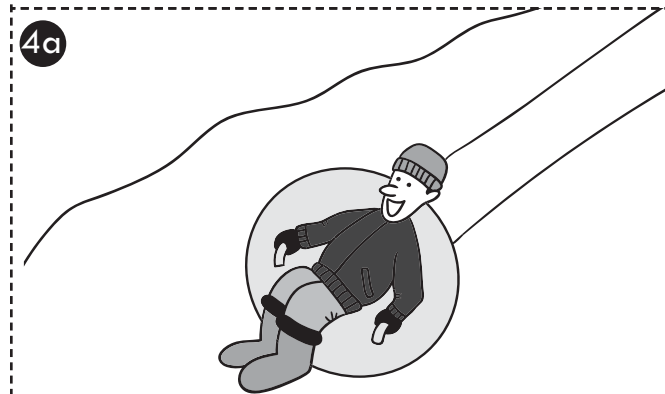

Matt opens his locker and puts his coat and book bag inside. Yikes! He leaves his hat on his head. Molly says, "Uh, Matt, you can't wear your hat in school."

When is it okay to wear a hat?

WHEN YOU'RE OUTSIDE IN WINTER

or

WHEN YOU PLAY BASEBALL

Matt puts on his hat when he goes sledding after school. Whee!

Matt puts on his hat when he plays baseball after school. Cool!

Matt opens his locker and puts his coat and book bag inside.

Yikes! He leaves his hat on his head.

Molly says, “Uh, Matt, you can’t wear your hat in school.”
