UFO?

It is dark night.

Clouds cover the moon.

Two headlights shine.

It is a car.

Driving down a lonely highway.

A young woman is at the wheel.

Her friend sits next to her.

They talk and laugh.

The radio plays music.

Then the music stops.

There is only static.

A close-up shot of a person's hand on a black steering wheel. The hand is positioned at the top of the wheel, with fingers gripping it. The background shows a vast, calm ocean under a clear teal sky. The scene is viewed from the driver's perspective inside a car.

The woman looks at her friend.
She changes the station.
More static.

The woman looks out the window.
She sees something.
It is in the sky.
It is flying.
But it is not a plane.

It looks round.
Like a disc.
Red lights blink.
What could it be?
