

Cleo glanced out the window and saw a huge dog staring at her!

Activity Page

A glance is a short look. A stare is a long look. Glance and stare are opposites. Cleo glanced up and saw a dog. The dog stared at her. Who looked longer?

Say the word glance/stare with me.

Think of a real or silly word that rhymes with glance/stare.

Clap the syllables in glance/stare.

What sound is at the beginning of the word glance/stare? /g/, /s/

Glance at this picture for three seconds. Name as many things in the picture as you can. Now stare at the picture for 30 seconds. Name as many things in the picture as you can.

Cleo looked around. She was the only one who could see the dog loping alongside the bus!

“Hi, Cleo,” said the dog. “You wished for an interesting bus ride. I’m here to make your wish come true.”