

19 Animal Homes

Exclusionary Listening

Animals live in many different kinds of homes. I'm going to tell you four things about an animal home. Listen carefully to figure out which animal home I am describing.

1. It is outside.
2. It is not built by people.
3. It is in a tree.
4. It is built by an animal.

Which animal home did I describe? Circle it.

Listening for Directions (target concepts: inside/outside)

1. Put a check mark by the animal home that is inside.
2. Draw a zigzag line from the birdcage to one of the animal homes that is outside.
3. Find the animal home a rabbit lives in. Draw a rabbit sitting outside of its home.
4. The bird's nest is outside. Draw three eggs in it.
5. There is a pig sleeping inside the barn. Draw an arrow to the door it will use when it goes outside.

Listening for Clues

1. The animal that lives here has very soft fur. It also has to be a very good digger so it can make its own home.

Which animal home am I talking about?
Outline it.

2. This animal home is made of wood. It has walls and a roof. Many animals can live in it at one time.

Which animal home am I talking about?
Write the name of an animal that could live in this animal home on the roof.

3. This animal home is outside but when an animal is in it, the animal is inside. Animals with names like Rover or Spot sleep here.

Which animal home am I talking about?
Draw a bowl of water near it.

4. It is used to find buried treasure.

What is the most important thing on Pirate Pete's ship? Circle it.

Listening for Directions (target concept: pair)

1. Draw a pair of glasses on the parrot.
2. Draw a pair of socks on Pirate Pete.
3. Now draw a pair of boots on him.
4. Cross out Pirate Pete's earring. Draw another pair of earrings on the table.
5. Color the pair of swords on the flag.

Listening for Clues

1. Pirates of long ago were not nice. They hurt people and stole things. One of the things they stole was made of gold.

What did Pirate Pete steal?
Circle it.

2. Pirate Pete wanted the other ship to know that he was a pirate. The only way to do this was to hang something that the other ship could see.

What did Pirate Pete hang on his ship?
Draw a line from it to the other ship.

3. Sam loved to play "pirate." He already had an eye patch, a treasure map, and a pirate's flag. He was only missing one thing. He needed something to protect himself.

What was the one thing Sam needed to play "pirate"?
Outline it.
