

Contents

Unit 1: What Is Writing?	5
Lesson 1: Why We Write	6
Lesson 2: What I Know about Writing.....	8
Lesson 3: Writing As a Form of Communication	9
Lesson 4: The Writing Process—Planning.....	10
Lesson 5: The Writing Process—Writing and Reviewing.....	12
Unit 2: Sequential Writing	15
Lesson 1: What Is Writing to Sequence?	16
Lesson 2: Letter Home	20
Lesson 3: Study Tips Email.....	25
Lesson 4: Writing a Note	30
Lesson 5: Snack Recipe.....	35
Unit 3: Descriptive Writing	41
Lesson 1: What Is Writing to Describe?.....	42
Lesson 2: Writing about Myself.....	47
Lesson 3: My Missing Backpack	52
Lesson 4: Want Ad	57
Lesson 5: I’m Going to Buy a Car!	62
Unit 4: Comparative Writing	67
Lesson 1: What Is Writing to Compare?	68
Lesson 2: A Restaurant Comment Card	72
Lesson 3: Article of Comparisons	77
Lesson 4: Writing an Email	83
Lesson 5: Text Message	88

Lesson 1: Why We Write

To write means to:

Several ways I write are:

I rely most on this type of writing:

Writing Survey

Directions: Circle your best response in each line below.

1. I write every day.	I write some days.	I never write.
2. I like writing.	I don't care about writing.	I don't like writing.
3. I am a good writer.	I am an OK writer.	I have a hard time writing.
4. I can write without help.	I need some help with writing.	I need lots of help with writing.
5. My handwriting is easy to read.	My handwriting is hard to read.	I only use typing to write.
6. I understand writing is important.	I never think about writing.	I don't care about writing.

Answer true or false to the following statements.

1. It is important to know how to write.	True	False
2. Writing is useful at home, at school, and in the community.	True	False
3. A person can learn how to write better.	True	False
4. I want to learn to be a better writer.	True	False

Lesson 2: What I Know about Writing

Categorize ideas and what you know about writing on this chart. Use any ideas the class has mentioned.

Writing Explored
Types of Writing _____ _____ _____
Skills Needed _____ _____ _____
People Who Write _____ _____ _____
Tools _____ _____ _____
Related Action Words (Verbs) _____ _____ _____

Lesson 3: Writing As a Form of Communication

Think • Say • Write

- ▷ Remember! Your thoughts can be spoken and your spoken words can be written!
- ▷ Written words are powerful and long-lasting!

1. Think

Take a moment. Think about the last meal you ate. For now, just think about it. Think about...

- ▷ What you ate
- ▷ How it tasted
- ▷ Who you were with
- ▷ Where you were
- ▷ What you drank
- ▷ How you felt

2. Say

Now, turn to your partner. Tell him or her all about your last meal. Use descriptive words to tell everything you can.

3. Write

Now write about your meal in the space below. Ask for help if you need someone to write while you dictate the words.

Lesson 4: Planning

Know the Purpose

Pretend the following are directions for a writing task. Read each direction. Then underline the word that tells you the action you are to do. Circle any words that are clues to the purpose of the writing.

✓ Check the purpose in the row below each direction.

Compare a donkey and a horse.
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade
Write what would you say to your parents to convince them to buy you a new bike?
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade
Write the steps to buying a product on e-Bay?
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade
Describe what led to the pollution in the lake?
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade
Explain what you could do to solve the garbage problem.
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade
Tell what features you like about summer.
<input type="radio"/> Sequence	<input type="radio"/> Describe	<input type="radio"/> Compare	<input type="radio"/> Cause/Effect	<input type="radio"/> Problem/Solution	<input type="radio"/> Persuade

Now, find a direction in a classroom assignment for each purpose of writing. Write the direction on the lines below. Underline the word that tells you the action and circle any words that are clues to the purpose of the writing.

Sequence:

Describe:

Compare:

Cause/Effect:

Problem/Solution:

Persuade:

Lesson 5: Writing and Reviewing

1. Plan

- ▷ You already know how to use the writing process.
- ▷ You already know how to Plan, Write, and Review. Just think about it!

First...

Tell at least three things you have ever planned:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

Next...

Draw a picture of a plan or a map. Or draw a picture of anything you have ever organized (like your closet).

2. Write

Pretend you are writing a note to your friend about where to meet at the mall.

Write the note here.

A large yellow notepad with horizontal lines and a vertical margin line on the left side, intended for writing a note.

3. Review

Now go back and read your note to a partner. Does the note have enough information? Do you need to make changes?

Make changes if needed. Write your final note here.

A large sheet of yellow lined paper with a vertical margin line on the left side, intended for writing a final note.

See how easy the writing process is?

Lesson 1: What Is Writing to Sequence?

1. Plan

To sequence means to

List words that help you tell a sequence, an order, or steps in a procedure.

Next... Choose one of these activities.

- ▷ How to make a chocolate shake
- ▷ How to start a car
- ▷ How to make macaroni and cheese
- ▷ How to make a frozen pizza
- ▷ How to find information on the web
- ▷ How to make a call on a cell phone

Use steps to tell a sequence. Pretend you will tell a friend how to do the activity you chose. Use the graphic organizer to organize the sequence of steps. Be certain you give a complete sequence. Visualize in your mind the steps you need to take. Draw pictures on the right-hand side if it helps.

Sequence in Steps

Step 1

Step 2

Step 3

Step 4

Step 5

2. Write

- ▷ Now take the information in your plan and write the sequence in steps using complete sentences.
- ▷ Talk through your writing as you go, if needed.

3. Review

- ▷ Read your step-by-step sequence out loud to another person. Make any changes you want after you read it aloud.
- ▷ Use the Review Guide to check your writing. Make revisions if you need to.

Review Guide

Check off each writing task when finished.

▷ I wrote for the right purpose.

What is the purpose of this writing assignment?

Circle one.

Write a Description

Tell a Sequence

Compare Two or More Items

▷ I used words related to the purpose.

These are the words I used that relate to the purpose:

▷ I followed the action word of the direction.

What word told me the action?

▷ I used the graphic organizer to help me write.

▷ I have a topic sentence or a main idea sentence.

That sentence is _____

▷ I have several supporting details.

▷ Each sentence is complete.

▷ Each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with the correct punctuation.

▷ I have followed spelling and grammar rules.

I learned these new words in this lesson:

Lesson 2: Letter Home

Situation: You are staying with your grandparents for the summer. You have just returned from a fun camping trip with your cousins and your grandparents and you want to write home about it.

Goal: Write a letter to your parents telling them in sequence about the camping trip.

1. Plan

First...

Think about words you might use to describe the camping adventure.

List camping words and any sequence words that might help organize your letter.

Next...

Use time words to help you tell a sequence. Pretend you are writing home about the camping trip. Use the graphic organize to organize the sequence of camping activities when you were camping. Add pictures on the right-hand side if you'd like.

Sequence in Time

At first,

Then,

Then,

Finally

When it ended,

2. Write

- ▷ Take the information in your plan and write a letter to tell about your weekend.
- ▷ Talk through your writing as you write, if needed.

3. Review

- ▷ Read your step-by-step sequence out loud to another person. Make any changes you want after you read it aloud.
- ▷ Use the Review Guide to check your writing. Make revisions if you need to.

Review Guide

Check off each writing task when finished.

I wrote for the right purpose.

What is the purpose of this writing assignment?

Circle one.

Write a Description

Tell a Sequence

Compare Two or More Items

I used words related to the purpose.

These are the words I used that relate to the purpose:

I followed the action word of the direction.

What word told me the action?

I used the graphic organizer to help me write.

I have a topic sentence or a main idea sentence.

That sentence is _____

I have several supporting details.

Each sentence is complete.

Each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with the correct punctuation.

I have followed spelling and grammar rules.

I learned these new words in this lesson:

Lesson 3: Study Tips Email

Situation: Your friend is a horrible speller and is having trouble taking spelling tests. You talked about it on the bus, but when you got home you decided to send her an email about how you study spelling words and prepare for a spelling test.

Goal: Write an email to your friend to tell how you prepare for a spelling test.

1. Plan

First...

Think about words that might describe the steps in how you study.

List the words here.

Lined writing area for listing words.

Next...

Use the graphic organizer to organize your email and your steps for studying. Be certain you give a complete sequence. Tell another person about the sequence. Add pictures on the right-hand side if you'd like.

Sequence in Steps

Step 1

Step 2

Step 3

Step 4

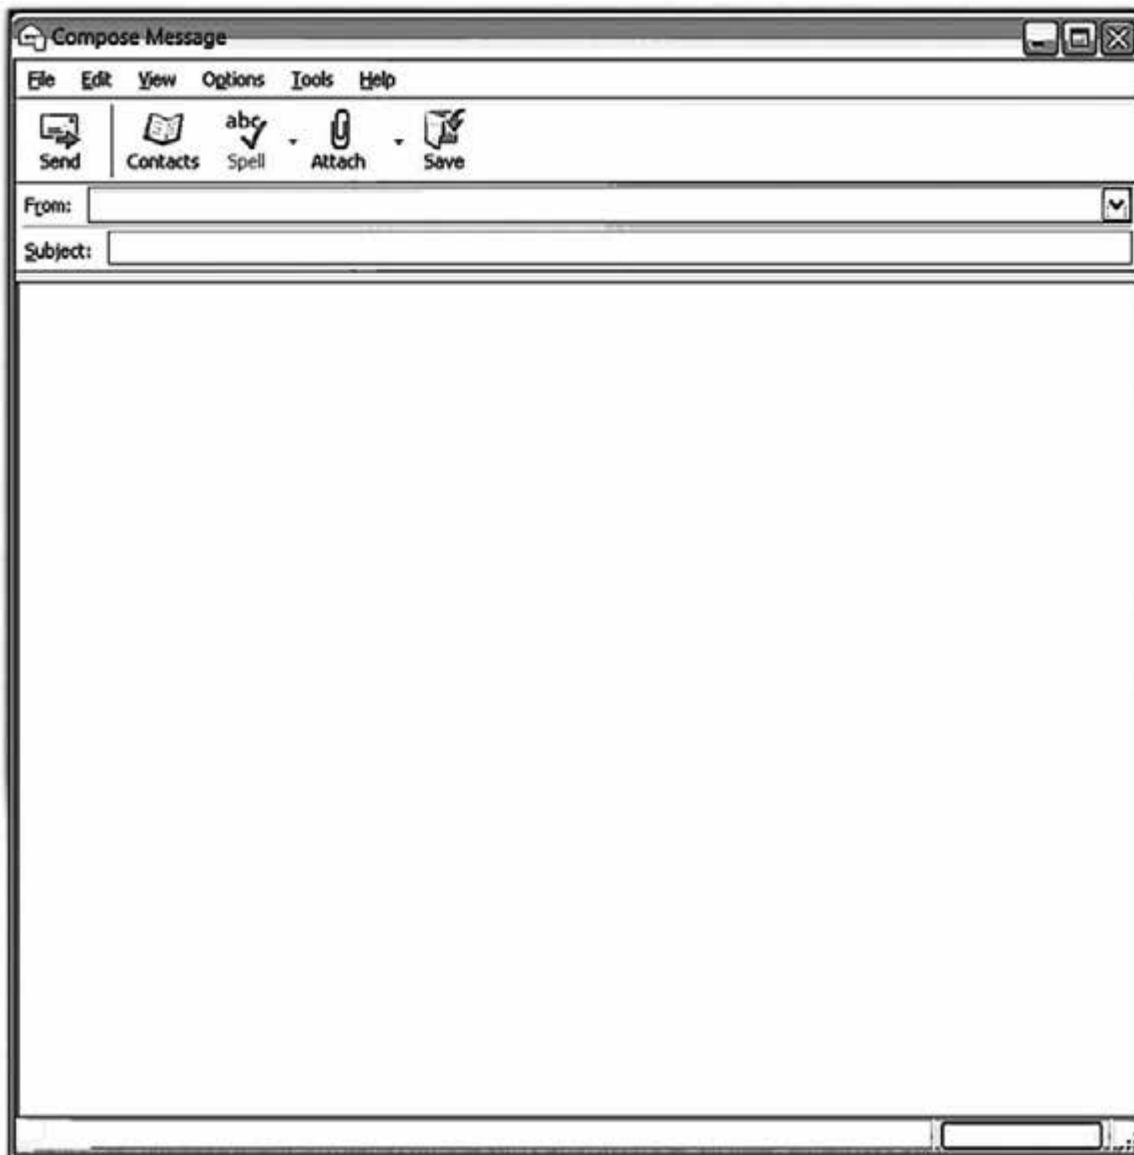

Step 5

2. Write

- ▷ Take the information in your plan and write an email to tell about your study steps.
- ▷ Talk through your writing as you go, if needed.

3. Review

- ▷ Read your email out loud to another person.
- ▷ Use the Review Guide to check your writing. Make revisions if you need to.

Review Guide

Check off each writing task when finished.

I wrote for the right purpose.

What is the purpose of this writing assignment?

Circle one.

Write a Description

Tell a Sequence

Compare Two or More Items

I used words related to the purpose.

These are the words I used that relate to the purpose:

I followed the action word of the direction.

What word told me the action?

I used the graphic organizer to help me write.

I have a topic sentence or a main idea sentence.

That sentence is _____

I have several supporting details.

Each sentence is complete.

Each sentence starts with a capital letter and ends with the correct punctuation.

I have followed spelling and grammar rules.

I learned these new words in this lesson:

Lesson 4: Writing a Note

Situation: Your older sister has agreed to return an item to a store for you.

Goal: Write a note to your sister telling what you need her to do for you.

1. Plan

First...

Think about words that will help you sequence the steps for returning the item to the store.

List the words here.

