What should we say when we want to borrow something from someone?

We should say, "Please."

Why?

Because when we say "Please,"
we are using good manners.
When we are polite and use kind words,
our friends will want to share with us.

This makes us both feel good.

What should we say
when we bump into someone?

We should say, "Excuse me."