

Questions

Lead Question

My friend is looking at something. What is my friend looking at?

Guess Questions

Is he looking at someone skiing/at the lake?

Is she looking at a rock?

Is he looking at himself?

Other Lead Questions

My friend can look at something. What can my friend look at?
(Can he look at ____?)

My friend will look at something. What will my friend look at?
(Will she look at ____?)

My friend wants to look at something. What does my friend want to look at? (Does he want to look at ____?)

My friend looked at something. What did my friend look at?
(Did she look at ____?)

My friend has looked at something. What has my friend looked at?
(Has he looked at ____?)

My friend had looked at something. What had my friend looked at?
(Had she looked at ____?)

My friend would have looked at something if my friend had known it was there. What would my friend have looked at?
(Would she have looked at ____?)

My friend was looking at something. What was my friend looking at?
(Was he looking at ____?)

Alternative Activities

Tell Me About It

You can describe a thing in several ways: its color, shape, and size; what it feels like; what it's made of; what it does; where you would find it; and who might use it. Describe these objects:

lake

rock

mirror

Making Connections

Put these two sentences together to make one sentence. Use the word but.

His friends are in the boat. He is on the shore.

The girl is in a field. He is on a beach.

Put these two sentences together to make one sentence. Use the word and.

The girl is standing in a field. The girl is looking at a rock.

The boy is looking in a mirror. The boy is making faces at himself.

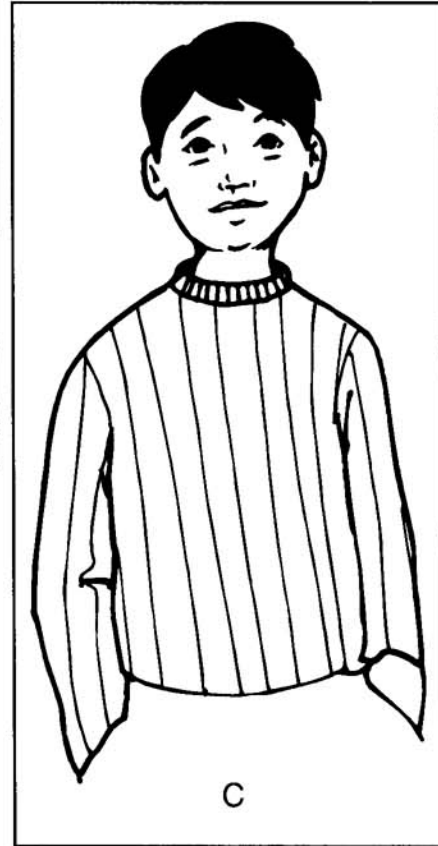

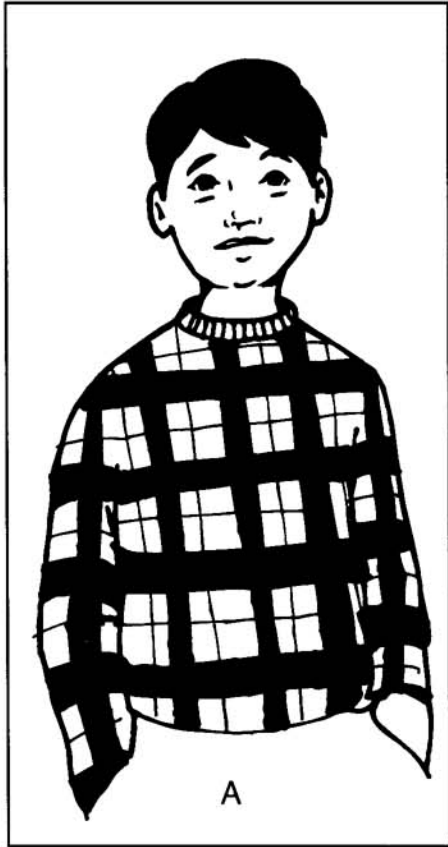

Past Tense

My friend is skiing. Yesterday he did the same thing. Yesterday my friend ____ (skied).

She is holding a rock. Yesterday she did the same thing.

Yesterday she ____ (held a rock).

He is making faces in a mirror. Yesterday he did the same thing. Yesterday he ____ (made faces in a mirror).

Questions

Lead Question

My friend is wearing a new shirt. Which shirt is he wearing?

Guess Questions

(Accept any description that differentiates one shirt from the others.)

Is he wearing the long-sleeved plaid shirt?
 Is he wearing the short-sleeved striped shirt?
 Is he wearing the long-sleeved striped shirt?
 Is he wearing the short-sleeved plaid shirt?

Other Lead Questions

My friend's mother told him he can wear one of his new shirts.
 Which shirt can he wear? (Can he wear ____?)

My friend will wear one of his new shirts. Which shirt will he wear? (Will he wear ____?)

My friend wants to wear one of his new shirts. Which shirt does he want to wear? (Does he want to wear ____?)

My friend bought one of these shirts. Which shirt did he buy?
 (Did he buy ____?)

My friend has bought one of these shirts. Which one has he bought? (Has he bought ____?)

My friend thinks he should wear one of these shirts. Which shirt should he wear? (Should he wear ____?)

My friend was wearing one of these shirts. Which shirt was he wearing? (Was he wearing ____?)

Alternative Activities

Compare Them

Look at shirt A and shirt D. How are they the same? Different?
 Look at shirt B and shirt C. How are they the same? Different?
 Look at shirt A and shirt C. How are they the same? Different?
 Look at shirt B and shirt D. How are they the same? Different?

Ask Me

What question would you ask in each of these situations?
 You want to know why the boy wore a short-sleeved shirt on such a cold day.
 You want to know where the boy got his shirt.
 You want to know how long he has had the shirt.
 You want to know when he bought his shirt.
 You want to know if he gets to choose his own clothes.

That Reminds Me

Look at these pictures and think about activities in your own life.
 Tell me about a time when you went shopping for clothes.
 Have you ever ripped a shirt? What happened?
 Tell me about your favorite shirt.
 Do you get to choose clothes to buy? How do you decide what to buy?

Making Changes

How could you change shirt A to look like shirt B?
 How could you change shirt C to look like shirt D?
 How could you change shirt B to look like shirt C?
 How could you change shirt A to make it look like shirt D?