

My favorite thing is _____.

We all like different things.
My friends' favorite things may not be the same as mine. This is okay.

When I am talking to a friend, I will try to say one thing about _____.
Then it is my friend's turn to talk.

Talking About My Favorite Things

Question Cards

Use these questions to assess the child's understanding of the behaviors or concepts introduced in the lesson. Cut along the dotted lines to separate the boxes. Then fold each one in half on the solid line to make a flash card. Tape or glue the top edge of each card to fasten the open sides together. You may also give the child a card to carry with him during the day as a cue, or cut apart the questions and answers and use them for a matching activity.

Do other people have favorite things?	What will you do when your friend is talking about something?
Yes. Other people have favorite things.	I will listen to what my friend is saying.
Is your favorite thing always the same as your friends' favorite things?	How many things will you say about _____?
No. My friends' favorite things may not be the same as mine.	I will say one thing about _____.

Talking About My Favorite Things

Generalization Page

1. Circle listening to your friend.

2. Circle saying one thing about _____.

3. Circle someone being happy when you listen.

Talking About My Favorite Things Mini-Book

Cut along the dotted lines around the book and in the center of the book. Fold on every solid line to make a crease. Then fold the book in half lengthwise and press the outer sections toward the center as shown. Fold together to form the book. Tape along the top and bottom cut lines to secure the pages.

1 Talking About My Favorite Things	8 My friend is happy when I say one thing about _____. My friend is happy when I listen.	7 I will try to listen to what my friend is saying.	6 When I am talking to a friend, I will try to say one thing about _____. Then it is my friend's turn to talk.
My favorite thing is _____. 2	Other people have favorite things. 3	We all like different things. My friends' favorite things may not be the same as mine. This is okay. 4	I like to talk about _____. 5