

Articulation (s, r, l) What tricks can you teach a dog?
sit, roll over, beg, "speak," fetch, shake hands (r, l) What shape are the dog tags? circles
(l) Are the dogs' ears long or short? long
(r, s, l) Repeat this sentence. Rover is smiling.

Vocabulary

- Concepts
Where are the dogs standing? beside/next to each other, behind the bowls, on the floor

Where are the food bowls? in front of the dogs, on the floor, across from each other

Which dog has fewer treats? Bud

Which dog has more letters in his name? Rover
- Attribute
Which dog is unhappy? Bud

Are these dogs wild or tame? tame
- Comparison
How are a dog and a cat the same?
animals, pets, fur, tail, whiskers

How are a dog and a cat different? dog barks, cat meows/purrs; can teach dog more tricks; dog usually more obedient, cats more independent; walk dog and it goes to bathroom outside, cat uses litter box
- Synonym
What is another word for smile? grin
- Antonym
What is the opposite of long? short
What is the opposite of smile? frown
- Definition
Some dogs bury bones. What does it mean to bury something? to dig a hole, put something in the hole, and cover it

What does it mean to train a dog?
to teach it to act a certain way/listen to you

Rover and Bud are obedient. What does it mean to be obedient? to listen and follow orders/directions

Listening

Rover is five years old. Bud is six months old. Which dog is still a puppy? Bud

Which of these does not go with a dog?
collar, cat, bone, bark

Rover and Bud go for a walk every day. How often do Rover and Bud go for a walk? every day

Grammar

Correct this sentence. The dogs is looking at each other. The dogs are looking at each other.

Correct this sentence. A dog gots two ears.
A dog has two ears.

Correct this sentence. Him likes to go to the pet store.
He likes to go to the pet store.

Reasoning

Why are dogs called man's best friend? loyal, lovable, obedient, can be trained, fun to be around

How do you know these dogs are someone's pets?
collar and I.D. tags (have names), food bowls

Why should you walk a dog with a leash?
so dog doesn't run away/get lost/hit by car

Why shouldn't you pet a strange dog?
don't know if it's friendly, might bite you

Why is Bud frowning? fewer treats

If Bud is upset, will he wag his tail or whimper?
whimper

What information is important to have on a dog tag?
dog's name, owner's address/phone number

How can you tell if a dog is happy? It will wag its tail.

- Articulation (r, l) Which animal has wings? butterfly
(s, l, r) What things can you do at a pool? swim, splash, dive, go underwater, play games
(r) What sound does a frog make? ribbit
(l, s, r) Repeat this sentence. The pool has stripes.

Vocabulary

- Concepts Which has more water, the pool or the goldfish bowl? pool
Where are the flowers? outside/next to the pool, in a vase, in the garden
Are the girl's arms apart or together? apart
What is on the edge of the pool? frog
- Attribute Which is colorful, the table or the pool? pool
What is made of glass? fish bowl
Name all the containers. sack/bag, pool, vase, fish bowl
What things do you plant? flowers
Do girls wear swimming trunks or swimming suits? swimming suits
How does each animal move? frog hops, butterfly flies, fish swims
- Comparison How are a frog and a fish the same? animals, breathe underwater

How are a frog and a fish different? frog has legs and hops, fish has fins and swims; frog lives in water/on land, fish lives in water
- Synonym What is another word for bag? sack
- Antonym What is the opposite of float? sink
What is the opposite of wet? dry
- Definition What does it mean to dive into water? to go headfirst
What are pigtails? hair tied at the sides of the head
There are ripples in the water. What are ripples? small waves
What are blossoms? flowers/flower petals
What does it mean to weed the flowerbed? to pull or dig out weeds
What does it mean to dunk someone in the pool? to make him go underwater

- Listening This is an animal. It lives on land and in the water. What is it? frog
This is a container. It's on the table in the picture. It holds flowers. What is it? vase
You can swim in it. It's larger than a pool. It rhymes with bake. What is it? lake
This grows in your yard. It's green. People cut it with a mower. What is it? grass/lawn

- Grammar Correct this sentence. There isn't no flowers in the pool.
There aren't (any) flowers in the pool or There are no flowers in the pool.
- Correct this sentence. Her is making waves. She is making waves.
- Correct this sentence. I only see one fishes in the bowl. I only see one fish in the bowl.

- Reasoning Why should you wear a life jacket when you're in a boat?
to keep you safe/afloat if you fall in the water
- Why are lifeguards at the pool and at the beach? to keep swimmers safe, to rescue anyone who has trouble swimming/gets in too deep, to make swimmers obey the rules
- Name a safety rule for the swimming pool. Explain why the rule is important.
Answers will vary.