

1. You've just hit a winning home run! Show with your face and body how you feel.
2. You worked hard on a poster for social studies. The teacher chooses your poster to display in the hallway. Show with your face and body how you feel. Describe how you feel. happy, proud

1. At a family dinner, you accidentally spill juice on your grandma's tablecloth. Tell your grandma you're sorry in the voice you would use.
2. The swimming coach tells your team about an important swim meet. Say, "You must be here at 9:00 on Saturday," using the tone of voice he would use.

1. Greg's dad wears a uniform to work. He rides in a special car and watches for people breaking laws. What kind of job does Greg's dad have? He's a police officer.
2. The teacher says, "When the alarm goes off, I want you to leave the room in order. The last person out will shut the door." What's the teacher talking about? a fire drill, a tornado drill

1. You're going to feed your neighbors' dog while they're gone for the weekend. What should you ask before they go?
When should I feed the dog? How much should I feed the dog?
2. You got a C in spelling on your report card. You had B's on all your spelling tests. What should you ask the teacher about your grade?
Why did I get a C when I had B's on all my tests?