

Contents

Unit 1 Animals	1
Chapter 1 Living and Non-Living	2
Chapter 2 What Do Baby Animals Like?	11
Chapter 3 Look At the Animals	19
Chapter 4 Habitat, Oh, Habitat	31
Chapter 5 Everything Grows	39
Unit 2 Animals	52
Chapter 6 Wild Animals are Free	53
Chapter 7 Thrive and Survive	61
Chapter 8 The Food Chain	69
Chapter 9 Animal Characteristics	73
Chapter 10 People Need Animals and Plants	83

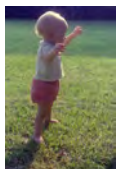

Simply Life Science

Living & Non-Living

A baby is living.

A baby needs air.

A doll is non-living.

A bear is living.

A bear needs water.

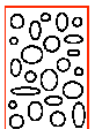

A teddy bear is non-living.

An elephant is living.

An elephant eats food

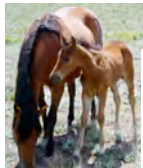

-- lots of food.

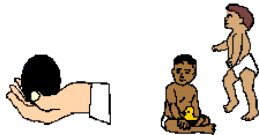

A covered bridge is non-living.

A horse is living.

A horse has babies.

A train is non-living.

A hawk is living.

A hawk needs air.

A sailboat is non-living.

A cactus is living.

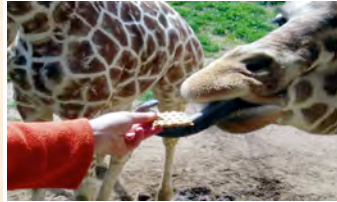

A cactus needs water.

A ball is non-living.

A giraffe is living.

A giraffe needs food.

A lighthouse is non-living.

A bird is living.

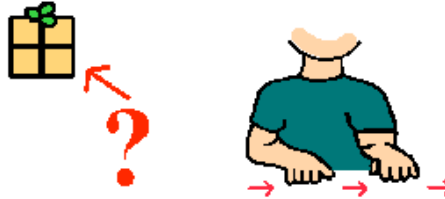

A bird has babies.

A drum is non-living.

What Do

Baby Animals Like?

Puppies

like balls.

Kittens

like yarn.

Tadpoles

like water.

Piglets

like mud.

Chicks

like seeds.

Lambs

like grass.

Foals

like to run.

Fawns

like to hide.

Ducklings

like to swim.

Kids

like to climb.

Calves

like to sleep.

Cubs

like to play.